

Logline:

Mama Has a Mustache is a short animated documentary is about identity and family outside of the traditional gender binary, as seen through children's eyes.

Summary:

MAMA HAS A MUSTACHE is a short, quirky, fully animated documentary about gender and family, as seen through children's eyes. Driven completely by audio interviews of kids ages 5-10, the film uses these sound bytes combined with clip-art and mixed media to explore how children are able to experience a world outside of the traditional gender binary.

Social Media

Example Caption (feel free to use this or anything you come up with!):

Come check out Mama Has a Mustache, a quirky and cute animated documentary about identity and family, as seen through children's eyes. It's streaming from date - date, with a Q&A on date. Register at the link in our bio!

Some Hashtags We Love (use these if you want to reach some wider audiences in our communities):

- #Genderneutralparenting
- #Gendereducation
- #Lgbtqeducation
- #Gendernonconforming
- #Transyouth
- #Educationaltools
- #Youthactivism
- #MamaHasaMustache

Graphic Template (we've made a social graphic you can use just to make things easy if you need it!): Click here for the template!

Please tag us! We would love to repost!

Instagram: @mamahasamustache

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/mamahasamustache>